APPROVED FOR USE: Institute Board

Resolution of Council, the 27th day of October 2003, pursuant to subclauses 16(1), 16(8), 16(9) and 17(1) of the Institute Constitution.

1. It is necessary and expedient for the proper management and control of the Institute, for the Council to prosecute for parking offences committed on Institute premises in accordance with the Road Safety Act 1986 and the Road Safety (General) Regulations 1999, and for the exercise of the power conferred on the Council by the Constitution to delegate certain powers, duties and functions.

This delegation is valid from the date approved by Council until such time as amended or revoked by Council resolution.

2. Definitions

In this Rule definitions contained in the Constitution shall apply, together with the following definitions unless inconsistent with the context or the subject matter.

“Institute”	shall mean the Northern Melbourne Institute of Technical and Further Education.
“Council”	shall mean the Council of the Institute.
“Constitution”	shall mean the Constitution of the Council of the Institute.
“Chief Executive Officer”	shall mean the person appointed by the Council and presently holding office as the Chief Executive of the Institute.

3. By this instrument, the Council delegates to the Chief Executive Officer the power to authorise officers to prosecute for offences relating to the parking or leaving standing of vehicles on land or premises which are vested in or under the control of the Council.
4. Those parts of the Institute premises to which parking offences will apply are appropriately sign posted.
5. All proceeds of fines imposed as a result of parking offences committed on Institute premises are credited to Institute funds.
