Logging on to the portal

- <https://student.nmit.vic.edu.au>

The screenshot shows the NMIT Student Portal login interface. At the top, there is the NMIT logo and the text 'student portal' with a pencil icon. Below this is a welcome message: 'Welcome to the NMIT Student Portal. Log on to access information relating to your program, get your results, keep in touch with teachers and fellow students, and find out about NMIT services and fun activities.' A blue button labeled 'Logging on for the first time?' contains a link 'Click here'. The main login section has two input fields: 'Student ID number (e.g. s0712345)' and 'Enter your password'. To the right of the ID field is the instruction 'Type 's' and then your student ID number.' To the right of the password field is the instruction 'Remember if you have not logged on before, you need to set up your account.' A 'Log On' button is positioned below the password field. At the bottom of the login section, there are three links: 'Need help with your login? Click here for assistance.', 'Old student intranet access' with sub-links for 'On campus access to the old student intranet - click here' and 'External access to the old student intranet - click here', and 'Forgotten your password? You can reset it here.'

Email

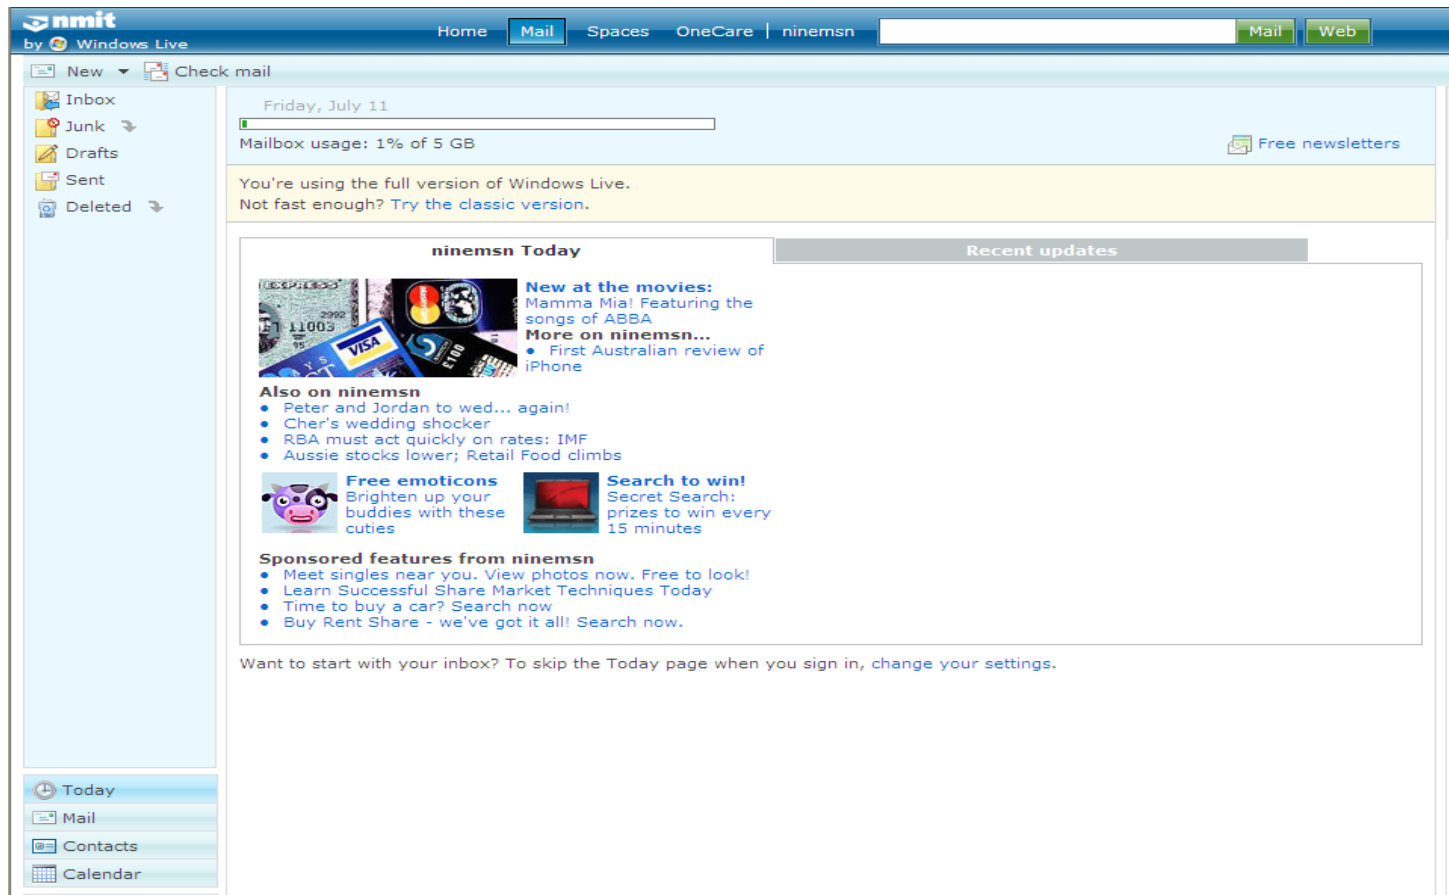

Your email address is your student portal username ('s' then your student ID number) followed by @nmitstudent.vic.edu.au, eg s99999999@nmitstudent.vic.edu.au

Your email password is the same as your Student portal password.

The screenshot shows the Windows Live Hotmail sign-in interface. On the left, there's a 'Windows Live' header with the Hotmail logo and the tagline 'The efficient way to do email'. Below this are three bullet points: 'Fight spam with Microsoft SmartScreen technology', 'Manage your email accounts in one place', and 'Access your email from your mobile phone'. A 'Learn more >' link is present. A 'Sign up' button is next to the text 'Don't have a Hotmail account?'. At the bottom left, it says 'Get a Windows Live ID and get into Hotmail, Messenger, Xbox LIVE—and other Microsoft services.' On the right, the 'sign in' section contains a 'Windows Live ID:' input field, a 'Password:' input field, a 'Forgot your password?' link, and two checkboxes: 'Remember me' (checked) and 'Remember my password' (unchecked). A 'Sign in' button is below the checkboxes. At the bottom of the sign-in section, it says 'Not your computer? Get a single use code to sign in with'. At the very bottom of the page, there are links for '©2011 Microsoft | Terms | Privacy' and 'Help Center | Feedback'.

- New at the movies: Mamma Mia! Featuring the songs of ABBA. More on ninemsn...
 - First Australian review of iPhone
- Also on ninemsn
 - Peter and Jordan to wed... again!
 - Cher's wedding shocker
 - RBA must act quickly on rates: IMF
