

Information Sessions

Enquiries 9269 8400

Time	TITLE	DESCRIPTION
4.00 PM	Viticulture	Our degree, diploma and certificates are developed to help students understand viticulture and winemaking practices throughout the grape growing and wine making calendars.
	Design, Drafting and Interior Fittings	Discover information about career paths for people who are interested in the built environment, including building and interior design, advanced building, construction and civil engineering.
	Massage and Aromatherapy	Investigate course options in Massage, Myotherapy and Aromatherapy. A strong focus is providing students with the opportunity to strengthen their skills and knowledge through their experience working in one or more of the student clinics.
4.30 PM	Agriculture and Agriculture and Land Management	Whether it is a degree, diploma or certificates you are after, become qualified in a range of areas within agriculture and land management.
	Cookery	The best chefs all start somewhere. Hear how our courses can help students develop skills from food safety to the fine art of patisserie.
	Hairdressing, Salon Management	Hairdressing is a huge industry with plenty of career opportunities. NMIT courses are practical and the NMIT salon provides plenty of hands on experience.
5.00 PM	Aquaculture	Aquaculture courses range from the Certificate II in the Seafood Industry to the Degree of Aquaculture. This presentation will highlight course content, variation and exit points.
	Tourism and Events	Want to pursue a career in the tourism and events industry? Our courses place an emphasis on work placements, volunteer opportunities and our own mentor program.
	Visual Arts	Visual arts can include photography, illustration, graphic design and painting and printmaking. Many respected artists/designers are involved in our courses and students participate in numerous exhibitions.
5.30 PM	Equine Studies	Our degree specialises in the scientific understanding of the horse, its environment and current management practices while our certificates offer training in horse Studies and breeding, stable hand /track rider, farriery and racing.
	Hospitality and Hospitality Management	Hear how our courses provide you with skills that will help you gain or secure employment within a wide variety of businesses, from the local pub to a top international hotel.
	Illustration, Australian Popular Music, Writing and Publishing (Higher Education)	The creative degrees prepare creative students to build a career in their area of passion. Creative Industries are highly renowned and our graduates are keenly sought after. Hear about the whole suite of degrees and the great facilities available at NMIT.
6.00 PM	Commerce	Commerce qualifications can take you anywhere! This session will introduce areas including accounting, sales and marketing, book keeping, International business and sports development.
	Performing Arts	Discover our courses in music performance at the Fairfield and Greensborough campuses and get information about our fantastic music business, sound production and television production programs.
	Horticulture	A career in horticulture can take you from a neighbourhood park to centre square at the MCG. People working in this industry design and implement strategies to preserve and maintain our environment.
6.30 PM	Mechanical Manufacturing	Do you like to work with metal? Engineering and metal working skills are used in a variety of occupations and applications. Join us to learn more about our range of courses offered in the Mechanical Trades.
	Business and Accounting (Higher Education)	Graduates of NMIT's Business and Accounting degrees enjoy a wide choice of career opportunities. We offer a supportive learning environment, friendly teachers and skills that you can use in the real world. Come to our information session to find out more!
	Electrotechnology	Sustain your future with Renewable energy. Hear about the range of courses that we have available to provide you with the skills to gain employment with companies that specialise in Renewable Energy.
7.00 PM	Computer Systems	Discover a course in Computer Systems Engineering. A growing industry with more employment opportunities available in network design, maintenance and management. From business, health and education to government, Computer Systems Engineering skills are in demand around the globe.

*Information Sessions correct at time of printing and may be subject to change. Check website for details.